Leaders' Edge Breakfast

Risks and rewards of being a director

Please join us for breakfast and hear from Bruce Carter FAICD, chair of TIO, director of SkyCity Entertainment Group Ltd and ASC Pty Ltd (Australian Submarine Corporation) and partner of Ferrier Hodgson as he discusses the risks and rewards of being a director.

Bruce will discuss issues such as:

- Why be on a board and what to consider before joining (due diligence)
- Basic aspects of being a director, including the risks
- Different aspects of government, private, public and not-for-profit boards
- What to look for if it all turns sour
 - records, how to conduct yourself, a leaking board, lack of trust on the board
- Occupational Health and Safety
- Financial literacy

Our breakfasts provide members and the Northern Territory business community with the opportunity to hear from speakers of national and international standing to share their experience and knowledge. We hope you can join us.

Speaker

Bruce Carter FAICD

Chair

TIO

Bruce Carter is a Partner of Ferrier Hodgson in Adelaide and was one of the founding partners of the Adelaide practice in 1992. He was formerly a partner at Ernst & Young.
