Board evaluation connect application form

Board Evaluation Connect is a directory of board evaluation service providers listed on the Australian Institute of Company Directors website for members.

To have a profile of your business services listed on the website, you must be a current financial member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and be able to demonstrate experience providing board performance evaluation services and an understanding of current issues faced by non-executive directors.

The profile listing is for an annual period charged at $550 (incl. GST) per annum.

To apply as a listed service provider on the Australian Institute of Company Directors, Board Evaluation Connect website resource for members, please complete all sections of this application form and return by email to memberservices@companydirectors.com.au
